

March 9, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stewart-Marchman-Act Behavioral Healthcare Honors Volunteers

Stewart-Marchman-Act Behavioral Healthcare's annual Volunteer Appreciation Night was held at the Bavarian Festhaus on February 26, 2008. The evening celebrated volunteers during 2008 for donating 20,816 hours over the course of the year. Individual awards were as follows:

Youngest Volunteer of the Year – Alex Cosimi
Administrative Volunteer of the Year – Ed Marusa
Prevention and Outreach Volunteer of the Year – Michael Wycuff
Inpatient Residential Intern of the Year – Larry Sargent
Merger Support Intern of the Year – Angel Epstein
Most Devoted (Most Hours) Volunteer of the Year – Dawn Parr (906 hours)
Most Inspired Intern of the Year – Gail Barr

The National Points of Light Award was awarded to Jon Hall Chevrolet/Ritchie Cadillac sales people for their contributions during the last 8 Christmases at Project WARM.

Stewart-Marchman Act-Behavioral Healthcare's volunteers do everything from data entry to counseling, landscaping to painting, advising us on our boards to just talking with clients. Thank you so much to all of our volunteers!

Left to right: Gail Barr, Chet Bell, CEO,
and Dawn Parr